

Congregation Beth Jehuda of Manchester

Late Friday evening services for the season were inaugurated on November 2nd. Mr. Cohen delivered the sermon, "Why Should We Pray". William Perer assisted in the services. A social hour in the vestry rooms of the synagogue followed, at which Mrs. Abromovitz and Mrs. Braun were hostesses. At the Friday evening services on November 16th, Mr. Cohen will deliver the sermon. All are invited to attend.

The Sunday Religious School is at present functioning, with the greatest enrollment it has ever had. Mr. Albert Leven has been added to the teaching staff. Children of the Woods Run district are invited to enroll in the classes.
