Anathan House is a center for older people. It has a warm, friendly atmosphere where they may find companionship, discover new interests, or pursue old ones.

It was established 18 years ago as the Council Lounge and renamed Anathan House three years ago, in honor of the donor, Mrs. Simon J. Anathan.

The center is open five days a week, from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., with a diversified program that includes educational classes and discussion groups, arts and crafts, community services and social activities. Its location at 1620 Murray Avenue makes it easily accessible by public transportation.

Anathan House is supported by the Pittsburgh Section, National Council of Jewish Women, and is staffed by volunteers who contribute their talents and skills under the supervision of a full time Director.

Our program is non-sectarian. Membership is available to everyone without charge. The door is always open to new members. Do tell your friends in the "golden years" about us. We welcome them.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Saul Shapira
President

Mrs. Abe Blumenthal
Executive Chairman, Anathan House
