

JEWES WITH AIDS IN THE FAMILY

Do you want to touch hands with other Jews who can say
"I know how you feel. I've been there. I'm still there."

In a strictly confidential setting (last names will not be revealed)

Jewish People with AIDS/HIV

Parents

Brothers & Sisters

Significant Others

Those Who Have Lost a Loved One to AIDS
are invited to get together to draw strength from each other

Sunday, April 26, 1992 - 7:30 p.m.

TREE OF LIFE SYNAGOGUE

SISTERHOOD ROOM

Wilkins & Shady Avenues

Mel and Beverly Pollock, who lost their son Robert to AIDS last year, will share their personal experiences.

Dr. David Weinbaum, West Penn Hospital, who treats AIDS/HIV patients and Mark S. Friedman, M.S.W., M.P.A., Director of Development, PERSAD Center will offer comments and answer questions.

Jewish Family and Children's Service will ask what services and support you need and determine by your consent how best to provide them. Kosher refreshments will be served. There is no charge for attendance. We thank the United Jewish Federation for support in starting this program.

Mel and Beverly Pollock
Co-Chairs

If you have any questions, please call JF&CS, 683-4900 and ask for:
RACHAEL DINKIN ROSEN or
DEBBIE LEVENSTEIN

JEWISH FAMILY & CHILDREN'S SERVICE