TREE OF LIFE SISTERHOOD

ANNUAL GIFT LUNCHEON

Tuesday, June first - 12:30 P.M. - Schenley Hotel

MRS. ABRAHAM A. GOLDSTEIN, Wife of our late beloved Sexton and Hebrew Teacher, will be OUR GUEST OF HONOR, IN COMMEMORATION OF SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AFFILIATION WITH THE TREE OF LIFE SYNAGOGUE.

Program: A playlet set to music - written and directed by Mrs. I. M. Kreimer
"LOOKING THROUGH GRANDMA'S EYES"

TO OUR LUNCHEON COMMITTEE
Composed by Mrs. Samuel M. Reichman

Im just four days our Gift Luncheon takes place
At the hotel Schenley, the tables we'll grace
Dressed in our "New-Look" togs, we'll look fine
So bring all your friends and relations to dine

Ten Dollars is the price of your "Gift" this year
You'll be especially eager to come - when you hear
Of the Program we've planned and honor we'll pay
To one we all love - It's Grandma Goldstein's Day.

She'll be the honored guest, and about her we've woven
A story of her memories in songs well chosen
The title is: "Looking Thru' Grandma's Eyes"
And Hilda Kreimer as Author takes the prize

Leah Freedman is the girl who's neglecting family and friends
For a Gift Luncheon Chairman's job never ends
She has chosen her Co-chairman and Committees with care
They've cooperated with a willingness and enthusiasm that is rare

Helen Kamin and Sally Leventon were Hostesses to a Tea one day
And in charge of Decorations, they'll make the Ballroom gay
Nellie Gould and Jerri Rappoport made the Patron List grow
At $15.00 Per they have fat profits to show

Publicity is a huge task, and isn't much fun
Freda Miller, Belle Cohen, Rae Hall, pooled like one
Then there's Printing of Programs - your name must spell just right
Ada Levine is the girl who this printed must plight

The treasurer, of course, is most important of all
Bess Rosenthal's accounts always balance, she daren't stall
Our Telephone Committee has worked without a stop
Yetta Lemmer, Rose Orringer, and their gang are always on the hop

Seck Lopatin had Rummage Sales to earn your money
The profits could have been bigger, but our experiences were funny
If you can't stretch your budget, that's easy, be in style
Sara Blumenthal (ways & Means) suggested "Be A Baby Sitter For A While"

The details that come up never seem to end
Rehearsals, costumes, more money to spend
So ask all your friends, this not yet too late
To make reservations - June first is the date

Pearl Blumenthal and Madeline Lewis are waiting the tables to fill
Our Rabbi will give us a message of good will Rose Edelstein, our President, we'll toast this day
About her there are endless nice things we can say

On Tuesday, June first, to the Luncheon please come
And to our Wonderful Committee, sincerest Thanks for a job well done.
