

HOLDING a facsimile of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania check for $70,000 which State Rep. Ivan Itkin recently presented to JRS, is Kathy Hurwitz, president of Jewish Residential Services, Inc. (JRS), seated center. Seated left is Peggy Lowenstein, JRS treasurer; at right is Corinne Krause, vice president. Standing from left: Howard Shapiro; Itkin; Keith Morgenlander, JRS project coordinator; Howard Rieger, executive vice president of United Jewish Federation; and Herman Fineberg. The check represents a state initiative grant to help with starting costs for a residential program for mentally ill adults. Itkin said that the housing program is the first in Pennsylvania to meet the needs of observant Jews.
