JRS to hold open house June 3

JRS release

Jewish Residential Services will hold a public ribbon-cutting celebration and open house for Charles M. Morris Hall, 5680 Munhall Rd., on Sunday, June 3, from 1 to 3 p.m. Light refreshments will be served and limited parking is available at Hillel Academy.

Charles M. Morris Hall, developed in partnership with Action Housing, is JRS's newest residential program. It offers 12 adults the opportunity to live independently in safe, stable, affordable housing within the community. JRS provides residents with assistance in mastering the daily living skills they need in order to maximize independence.

The agency also provides residents with social opportunities and a strong connection with the Jewish community.

To RSVP or for further information, call JRS at 422-5560.
