
Restaurant Renovated For Friday Dinners

A completely renovated restaurant will greet the patrons of the "Y" who come to partake of the newly instituted old-fashioned Friday night dinners. William B. Wiedman, manager of the "Y" restaurant announces that complete cleanliness and courteous service have been strictly adhered to.

These Friday night dinners, arranged for the convenience of Pittsburgh Jewry who desire to perpetuate a custom of eating such a meal on Shabbos, will be a regular feature of the "Y" restaurant.
