

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN?

THE FAICOM CLUB, pictured here at their annual Mother's Day luncheon on May 12, 1940, was one of seventy-three groups which met weekly at the YM&WHA. The great majority of such social events were held at the Y, with the Y Restaurant catering the luncheons, and the club members organizing and carrying out the program for the occasion after weeks of feverish planning to make "this one" the best affair ever.

Chess Buffs, Note Well !!

Plans are now under way for a reorganization of the Chess Club which will begin to meet weekly at the Oakland Y-IKC after the start of 1970. Teen agers, college students, adults and senior adults—anyone who enjoys chess or would like an opportunity to play and improve his present game, will be welcome. There will be a nominal charge for Y-IKC members

But Mother's Day luncheons were only one of a great many things on the club agenda. Then, as now, groups were involved in the Annual One-Act Drama Festival, sports events, mass programs, volunteer services, and in the operation of their inter-club council.
