

---

Plans for Coming Year Outlined at New Bethlehem

Anticipating a banner year in Jewish activities, Clarion County inhabitants gathered at New Bethlehem to organize for the coming year. After a dinner which was served in the community rooms, a splendid address was given by Rabbi Eugene Greenfield of Oil City, which thrilled everyone of the forty guests present. Others called upon were J. L. Apple of Kittanning, Louis Steinberg of Dubois, M. Grant of Oil City and Arthur Gruskin of Kittanning.

Activities were discussed in open forum and plans laid for Sunday School, social and charitable events. The following officers were elected: Charles Krutzel, president; Max Weiss of Brookville, vice-president; treasurer, Thos. Z. Wein of Clarion and Mrs. M. L. Harris, secretary.

---