

Members of Cneseth Israel to Dedicate House of Worship

On Sunday, September 8, at 3:30 p.m., the members of Congregation Cneseth Israel, will dedicate their new House of Worship located at 1112 North Negley Avenue.

A cordial invitation is extended to members, their families and friends to attend the solemn ceremonial services. An impressive program has been arranged and will include appropriate tributes to the founders and the chanting of memorial prayers for the deceased who have passed on before the completion of the new edifice. These include the late Mrs. I. Foreman, Miss Anna Foreman, Manuel Morgan, Harry Katz and Sam Shaef-fer.

Officiating at the dedication will be Rabbi Joseph Shapiro, assisted by Reverend David Messeroff and founder members of the congregation.

Joseph M. Katz is chairman of the occasion which marks the culmination of many months of effort and planning.
