

BBHillel has moved; now on Craig St.

B'nai B'rith Hillel-Jewish University Center has relocated its facility for programming services and administration to the Omega Building, 160 N. Craig St., in Oakland. The move took place on April 27. The Hillel phone number remains 621-8875.

A special open house and Hanukat Ha Bayit will be planned early in the fall when students return to campus; the community is invited to visit.

Located on the first floor, Hillel's facility includes a reception area with adjoining offices for staff, a multi-purpose lounge, library and chapel, a new Kosher dining center and kitchen, and workroom. The secretaries and student officers will be situated in the reception and office area.

On-campus facilities at the major universities will continue to house large program functions as in the past; but the "nerve center" at the Omega Building will provide a comfortable and inviting center for college students, notes Director Rabbi Joseph Levine. "B'nai B'rith Hillel looks forward to new and emerging growth, and the expanded range and scope of its programs are made possible by the agency's new setting."

B'nai B'rith Hillel is a beneficiary of the United Jewish Federation of Pittsburgh.
