

Lubavitcher Here Conduct City-Wide Tefillin Drive

During the past months, young Lubavitcher Chassidim in Pittsburgh have been launching a Tefillin campaign throughout the city.

These Chassidim, drawing their inspiration from the Lubavitcher Rebbe who initiated this worldwide Tefillin campaign, have been visiting the dormitories on Pitt University Campus, the Carnegie Library, the Oakland "Y", and which move from one neighborhood to another.

Pittsburgh "has responded enthusiastically to the call since hundreds of Jewish youth have participated in this noble cause.

Aided in the campaign by young Lubavitcher students, Rabbi Katzen last week addressed teens at the Squirrel Hill IKC in a follow-up to see if the youths were still interested in the Tefillin.

HELPING 13 year Jerome Friedman of Lydia Street with his tefillin is Rabbi Shmarya Katzen, a Hebrew teacher at Yeshiva Achei Tmimim.
