

A NEW CONGREGATION IN EAST LIBERTY.

A new congregation of the Jewish strict Orthodox faith was formed in East Liberty with temporary headquarters at room 302 Vilsack building. The initiators of this new movement comprise some of the most prominent business men of the East End. Beginning Friday, August 20th, 1915, services will be held regularly every Friday evening, Saturday morning and Saturday evening at the above mentioned 302 Vilsack Building. At the above headquarters has also been established a Religious School (Cheder) where children are instructed in Heberw by Rev. Louis Lipman, well known as a capable instructor to the East End Jews for the past five years.

Holiday Services.

Notwithstanding all obstacles the committee has succeeded in securing the beautiful and comfortable Carnegie Lecture Hall of East End at Station street and Larimer avenue for the services of New Years, September 8, 9 and 10, and Day of Atonement, September 17 and 18. The large capacity of this hall enables the organization to make the price of tickets very reasonable ranging from $1 to $5 per ticket for the entire holiday season.

Tickets are all ready to be had from Louis Shoop, 6227 Frankstown avenue, A. Goldinger, 6006 Penn avenue, Morris Feldstein, attorney, Berger building.

Rev. Louis Lipman, Louis Perzil and others will participate in the services during the holidays.

A special meeting will be called the latter part of September for the purpose of getting a charter, election of officers and to obtain headquarters in the North Highland district.
