-- Walk For Israel On Sunday

GRUBER Family Club, represented here by four generations, is taking part in the "Walk For Israel" this Sunday. The 75-member Club has pitched in as a family activity to line up walkers, make sings and get sponsors. The Club, which is celebrating its 20th anniversary this year, consists of descendants of Sara and Shmool Gruber who arrived in Pittsburgh from Rumania in 1898. In the front row are, from left: Mr. and Mrs. Max Greenberg (she is Club president); Pamela and David Hirsh, age 5 and 9 respectively; their mother, Mrs. Judy Hirsh; and two-year-old Stacey Ann with her mother Mrs. Judy Smizik. With them are assorted Grubers Ungars, Bayers, and Mendelsohns, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and in-laws.

The coming "Walk For Israel" this Sunday is becoming a community show of solidarity for Israel. Hundreds of registrations have been pouring into the Y-IKC, coordinator of the event which starts at 1:30 p.m. from the Squirrel Hill Y-IKC, 5738 Forbes Ave.

Participants are young, old, big, little, black, white, Jew and non-Jew. They are entire Sunday school groups, families and family clubs, well known personalities in politics and the media, as well as individuals who are choosing the "Walk For Israel" as their own personal expressions of wanting to do something for Israel.

One young man is even going to "walk" in his wheelchair.

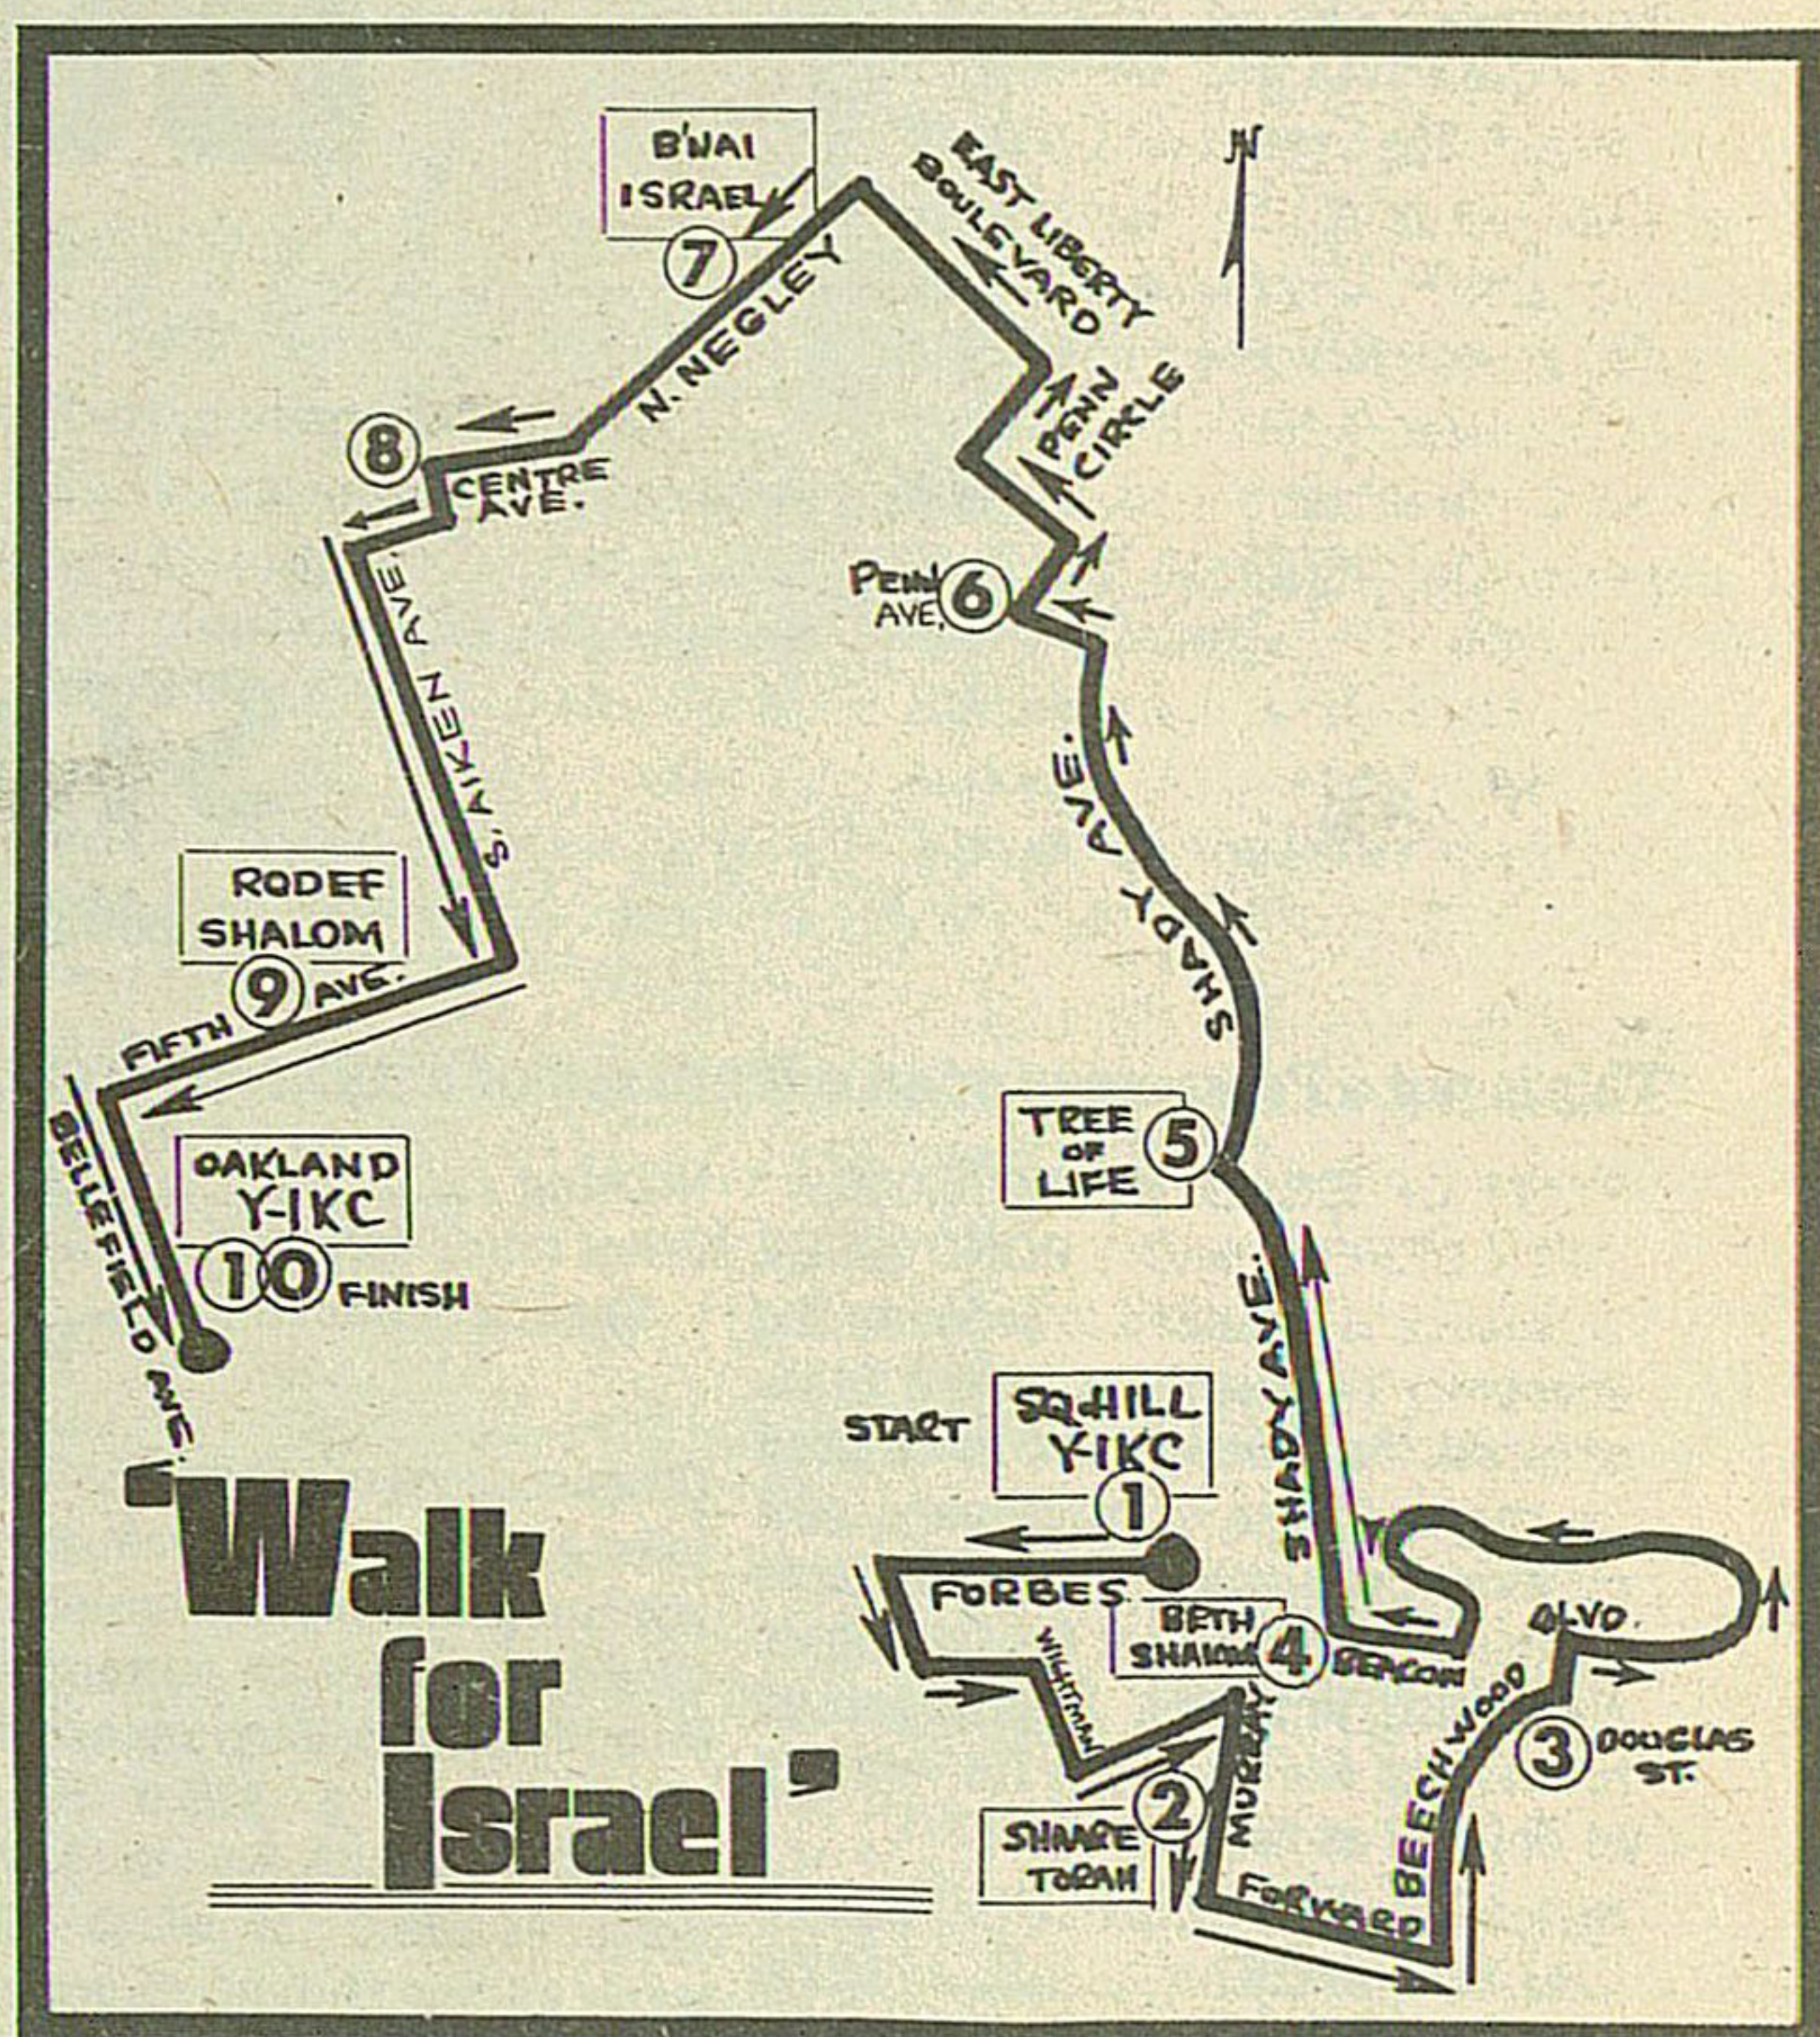

Purpose of the 10-mile walk through Squirrel Hill, East End and Oakland is to raise funds for the Israel Emergency Fund of the United Jewish Federation. With or without a Mid East cease fire the emergency overseas funds are needed for humanitarian services.

Those who are not walking can lend their support by sponsoring those who are taking part. If you'd like to sponsor some "walkers" (minimum age of 10), please call Mrs. Anita Lopatin, Y-IKC Program Director, at 621-6500. Mrs. Lopatin will be handling "Walk" registrations from her office at the Oakland Y-IKC, 315 S. Bellefield

Gerald Ostrow, UJF Campaign Chairman, said "We are asking people to sponsor 'The Walk For Israel' over, above and beyond what people are now giving to the 1974 UJF campaign."

Ave., up to Sunday morning. Registration forms are available at the Y-IKC in Squirrel Hill also.

She said that "Late registrants can show up at 1:30 p.m. starting time with their list of sponsors. Under-18 walkers must have the written permission of a parent."

WALK for Israel, to be held this Sunday, Oct. 28, 1:30 p.m., steps off from the Squirrel Hill YIKC, proceeds to Shaare Torah, around Beechwood to Beth Shalom, down Shady to Tree of Life, into East Liberty and Adath Jeshurun, to B'nai Israel, down Centre, then Aiken to Rodef Shalom and finishes at the Oakland Y-IKC.
