

The Pittsburgh Hebrew Yeshiva:—On Tuesday, May Sixteenth, the Yeshiva held a Lag B'Omar outing at Highland Park. The boys met at the Yeshiva at 9 o'clock. Mr. J. Steinberg, who is keenly interested in the Yeshiva, supplied each boy with a flag and a bow and arrow.

The parade was formed in front of the building on Tannehill Street, and all marched down to Forbes Street where special cars conveyed them to the park.

Mr. Sacolsky, President of the institution, and Mr. J. Steinberg furnished ice cream, candy and cake for all that were present.

Rabbi E. W. Kochia, founder of the Yeshiva, told the story of Lag B'Omar. He also spoke on "Torah and Knowledge." Mr. J. Steinberg talked on "Good Behavior." Mr. Go'dstein, teacher, spoke on the "Value of Education." Mr. W. Uris, who just arrived from Palestine and is teaching at the Yeshiva, rendered several Hebrew songs, with the boys.

Race prizes were awarded by the Misses Kochin. The Misses Steinberg served on the Refreshment Committee. Mr. H. Kalson helped to make this event a success.
