Ladies' Auxiliary, Pittsburgh Hebrew Religious Academy

On Sunday, October Twenty-eighth, a motion picture will be given at the Center Square Theater, 1728 Center Avenue, from 1 P. M. to 11 P. M. as a benefit for the Hebrew Religious Academy.

All Jews of Pittsburgh and vicinity are urged to come and patronize this good cause, which is to help many Jewish children receive a Hebrew and Yiddish education, at the Hebrew Religious Academy of Pittsburgh. This institution is located at 81-83 Tannehill Street. Various repairs are needed, so therefore, we ask for your kind support and help.

The Auxiliary takes this means of thanking the Argo Lite Co. for their donations of electrical fixtures which they donated to the committee, consisting of Mrs. I. M. Rabinowitz and Mrs. B. Hurwitz.
