

DEDICATION EXERCISES

of

The Hebrew Religious Academy Building of Pittsburgh

81-83 TANNEHILL STREET

will take place

Sunday, September 21st, at 2 o'clock

After many years of effort and difficulty, the Board of Directors of the Hebrew Religious Academy are glad to announce that the building at 81-83 Tannehill Street has been completed, and that the dedication exercises will take place on Sunday, September 21st, at 2 o'clock. An excellent program has been arranged, including the rabbis of Pittsburgh and prominent speakers. Cantor Bliberg and choir and other local talent will offer a musical program.

The entire Jewish community is invited to attend the exercises and to help participate in the opening of this building that carries on the noble work of giving Hebrew instruction to the children of this city.

The charter members include Sol Rosenbloom,

Max Friedman, Max Azen, Harry Kalson, R. Solomon, T. Silverman, Mayer Rosenbloom, Jacob Schechter, Abe Olbum, S. Mallin, J. E. Kalson and David I. Sobel.

Among the early contributors to the Building Fund are Sol Rosenbloom, Bennie Neiman, J. H. Frank, I. Seder, Louis Gordon, Jr., I. L. Aronson, Max Friedman, A. Edlis, Max Azen, H. Tuch, Jacob Schechter, B. Sheinberg, I. Laufe, B. Chaimovitz, Louis Hendel, Sol Silverman, B. Horvitz, J. Steinberg, M. Levy, H. Kalson and A. Seder.

Everybody is invited to attend these exercises and see the work that is being done. The Ladies' Auxiliary will serve refreshments.
