
Plan Third Annual Concert

The third annual concert of the Jewish Children's Schools of Pittsburgh will be held next Friday, April 10, 8 o'clock, at the auditorium of the Irene Kaufmann Settlement.

For this occasion a program has been arranged of a diversified and entertaining nature. A three-act play and comedy will be presented by the children of the school which will include dancing and singing numbers. A puppet-show and children's choir will feature the program. The Dramatic League of Pittsburgh will present a short comedy in Jewish. The well known artist Bessie Horowitz will render a selective violin recital.
