

KLEIN-FISCHMAN.

Before an embankment of greens the marriage of Miss Ruth Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klein of Inverness ave., and Max Fischman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fischman of Oakland, was solemnized July 1 at 6 p. m. in the Rittenhouse. The bride wore a gown of white satin, the skirt formed of ruffles of duchess lace and trimmed with seed pearls. The court train was of white satin, lined with white chiffon. Her veil of tulle fell front a coronet of lace and orange blossoms. She carried lilies of the valley, centered with orchids. Miss Virginia Klein, the maid of honor, wore a gown of pink georgette crepe with apple blossoms as trimming. She carried a bouquet of Ward roses and blue delphinium. The other members of the bridal party were Miss Fanny Fischman, who wore a gown of coral colored chiffon trimmed with lace, and Miss Lillian Klein, who wore a gown of flesh chiffon trimmed with rosebuds. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink roses with cornflowers and pink snapdragons. Miss Betty Rosenfield was dressed in pink chiffon and acted as flower girl. John Louis Klein was the ringbearer. Sam Klein was best man and Edward Gordon and Joseph Berk were ushers. Mrs. Joseph M. Gold was her sister's matron of honor, wearing a gown of pale green georgette crepe and carrying a bouquet of Ward roses and blue delphinium. Miss Ruth Klein, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The ceremony, which was solemnized by Rabbi S. B. Friedman, was followed by a dinner for the immediate families. The recep
