

Gas Range Installation Service Offered To Dealers In Allegheny County

Mr. Max Fischman has announced that he has organized a new company to be known as the Consumers Service Company for the purpose of supplying to retail dealers an efficient gas range installation service.

The new company is prepared to offer a graduated type of service tailored to fit the individual needs of retail dealers in Allegheny County.

Mr. Fischman has a successful background in the gas range field having been associated with Kaufmann's Department Store in Pittsburgh in buying and servicing capacities for a period of ten years. More recently he was connected with the Hect Company in Washington, D. C.

Dealers can secure details of the new service by contacting Mr. Fischman at the Consumers Service Company, 1627 Locust Street, Pittsburgh, or by telephoning GRant 1356.

Max Fischman