

ASSOCIATED HARDWARE

SUPPLY COMPANY

IS BACK IN BUSINESS

NOON SATURDAY

The end of a

"MILLION and ONE-HALF DOLLAR FIRE"

which occurred Friday evening, September 24th and completely destroyed the contents and building occupied by Associated Hardware Supply Company.

TUESDAY 6 P. M.

THE FIRST TRAILERS OF MERCHANDISE BEGAN ARRIVING AT OUR SPACIOUS TEMPORARY WAREHOUSE. Even before that, by Saturday evening, all members of the company were working to re-establish the company's position. Offices were set up in the Hilton Hotel, rooms 401-408 by Monday morning. Tuesday 4 p. m. the company announced that they had obtained temporary quarters at the former Orlinger Home Furniture Company warehouse at 9th and Hallett Streets, Braddeck, Pa. This warehouse facility provides 210,000 sq. ft. of space on 5 floors with 24 loading docks for trucks and a private B&O Railroad siding which accommodates 8 cars at a time. The warehouse was already receiving merchandise by Tuesday evening 6 p. m. Offices will remain in the Hilton Hotel approximately two weeks until furniture and equipment can be moved into the Orlinger facilities.

THANKS TO ALL OUR FRIENDS and FRIENDLY COMPETITORS FOR ALL THEIR HELP and ENCOURAGEMENT
