Dear Lou,

Let me first apologize to you for the problem that is creating for you in communicating with me.

I am in receipt of the prayer book and your letter contained therein. But, as you might appreciate, I did not receive it directly, as my points of destination have been constantly unpredictable.

I still did not see your letter but it has been read to me.

I'm happy that you expressed your desire to me with reference to the English Readings and the Ark openings in your preparations for an orderly service. You will find all of your requested information on the following pages. I hope, however, that you will grant me the liberty ~~to alter~~ to alter the service if an inspiration should so direct me. With only the possibility of minor changes, therefore, I will proceed.

Rabbi J. G. Maza
