

D (OKLAHOMA)

Ohhhhh, the suburbs
Where Beth Israel Center will be built:
If the men don't wilt
If the gals get gelt
We will really make our presence felt!

Ohhhh, the suburbs
Where the transportations's mighty tough.
Snow-bound roads are rough
Driving moms get gruff.
They have all had just about enough!
We now own a big tract of land
And the land we have purchased is grand.
So when we sayyyyyy
WE are going to find the wayyyyyyy
We're really saying
We're going to build in the suburbs
In the suburbs, today!

② (Surrey with the Fringe on Top)

Jack and Jim and Del always scurry
Bo B and Harv and Ed in a flurry
Joe and Sid and Max in a hurry to collect some dough.

Men's club, building fund, treasury report
And Dick Arnowitz needs Ad Booksupport.
Complications of all sort cause us lots of woe.

Moe Mentser guides the education needs.
Phineas and John do our singing.
Saul Berliner's bulletin is up to date.
The center surely is swinging.

New Year's Eve we all got together,
Though we had to battle the weather.
Now we seek to add another feather to our cap of deeds
On May twenty-eighth we dance for our needs.

Did you say you don't think you'll be there?
Did you say you really do not care?
Are you going to leave the job to other members?
Hope that every girl here remembers. . .

Each of us gets mighty sick of givin'
To support our chose religion
But today it's all part of livin' in the U.S.A.

Christians give to their favorite church
Ever hear of a church in the lurch?
Even Moslems join in the search to build new mosques and not pay

The center's membership is eighty-four
We're gaining in population
If we ever get our building complete
It's sure to cause a sensation.

#4 Now ladies please
We've got to tell
Of all these doings
We've planned so well.

cont'd.

You say you're not wild for Paul Anka
 But we need moola in the banka.
 Some day all our kids will say thank ya
 In their own sweet way!
 Friends, May twenty-eighth is the big day!

3 (I CAN'T SAY NO)

It ain't so much a question of not knowin' what to do
 We're known what's right and wrong since we began.
 We've heard the same old story & we reckon it is true:
 A wife should stay home evenings with her man.

BWT

We go to meetings every night
 Who'd want to miss tonight's fight?
~~Supposin~~ we called the meeting off.
 Think of our poor hostess' plight!
 Our agenda call for raising funds.
 We hear reports from Charlotte's ways and means.
 Though each girl is working very hard
 The goal we've set impossible it seems.
 We've got committees going galore;
 We'll simply have to get more.
 Husbands can all declare war!
 It's Beth Israel we're working for!
 Our funds must soar!

We go to meetings every night.
 Though we're not sure it's quite right.
 Husbands are left to tend the kids;
 They claim we're never in sight.
 Three short years ago our girls were few
 But since that time we grew and grew and grew.
 Now our group's so large--we wouldn't fool
 We proudly moved our meetings to the school!
 We owe a lot to our Estelle
 Thanks too, should go to Adelle
 Edie has planned thair day well
 Esther has worked like all hell
 Sisterhood is swell!

④ (PEOPLE WILL SAY WE'RE IN LOVE)

Why do folks think of stories
That link our name with chases?
Why do our neighbors chatter 'bout us behind their doors?
We know a way to prove what they say is all quite true
Here is the gist: a practical list of what we do:

Who ^{helps} runs the Sunday school?
Who drives in a car pool?
Who shleps like a big darn fool?
Members of Sisterhood:

Shirley
Who serves each Friday night?
Who shines the Torah's bright?
Who has centergrams to write?
Members of sisterhood.

We had a grand bake sale;
Mae's recipes sold real well.
Never did we ever fail
Sisters of Beth Is-ra-el: ALL

Who totals stacks of dues?
Whose diaper talk made news?
Who lugs ancient clothes and shoes?
Members of our sisterhood.

Shirley
Who handles books to lend?
Whose gift shop sets the trend?
Who has piles of notes to send?
Members of our sisterhood.

We sell cosmetics and wine
Chanuka wrappings and twine.
Never did we ever fail
Sisters of Beth Is-ra-el. ALL

⑤ (MANY A NEW DAY) Keisler

Many a bright jewel is seated here.
Many a bright jewel is welcome.
Many a bright jewel has made it clear
It's ~~uk~~ cost a lot and then some.
Many a bright jewel is happy she could come.

Many a bright jewel can well be proud.
Pearls and rubies shine now.
Sing out her praises long and loud.
Emeralds and sapphires gleam now.
Diamonds are sparkling--they're allowed;
They are the top and then some
Many a bright jewel is happy she could come.

6 (OKLAHOMA - Closing chorus)

Ohhhhhh, the suburbs
 Where Beth Israel center will be built!
 If the men don't wilt
 If the gals get gelt
 We will really make our presence felt.

Ohhhhhh, the suburbs
 Where today's affair is being spent.
 For their hours of work
 Which they never shirk
 To our hostesses our thanks are sent.

We hope we don't ruin your lunch
 But we must add this one final punch
 That when we sayyyyyyyy
 The cause that brings us here todayyyyyyyy
 Is simply Sisters
 We want to build in the suburbs
 In the suburbs--HOORAY !
