The Austro-Hungarian congregation, Poale Zedeck was organized November 6, 1881, in the house of Mr. William Keller. Very shortly after, a hall was erected for the 40 odd members at that time. Its growth has been consistent and it now occupies a beautiful synagogue on Crawford Street. The congregation has always maintained a Hebrew school. Today Mr. Adolph Greenberger is principal. A Sisterhood was organized in 1911 and has been presided over by Mrs. Joseph Klein.
