

THE PITTSBURGH HEBREW SCHOOL

137 CRAWFORD STREET

THE COMMUNITY'S PIONEER TALMUD TORAH

Founded in 1886 by Rabbi M. S. Sivitz

SHAVOUETH 5686

Z'MAN MATAN TOROSANU

(The season commemorating the dedication of the Torah)

The week preceding Shavoueth has been set aside by Rabbi Sivitz as an appropriate time for the Jewish community to join by means of donations in the support of the Talmud Torah. Adhering to its originally established policy the Talmud Torah provides religious instruction for the Jewish youth of the community under the supervision of capable teachers and in the spirit of traditional Judaism. About 75 percent of the pupils are admitted free of all tuition charges and the remainder pay nominal fees. Hence, it is obviously imperative to appeal to the generously-spirited members of the community for contributions for the maintenance of the school.

THE TALMUD TORAH NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT!

Kindly send your check to the School or to Rabbi M. S. Sivitz, 1229 Epiphany Street.
