Sailing the Caribbean Sea bound for Havana

Dear Rita:-

How are you sweetheart, do you think of me often?

I think of my little girl all the time. Tonight we are having a masquerade ball and a lot of the young people have costumes, after that they spread the table with chicken, duck, fish lobster, all kinds of salads large bowls of canned fruits and fresh fruits, cakes and almost every thing very hungry. Every day at 4 o'clock Leonard and I go down and get massaged, I have lost 8 pounds. I am sunburned and look like an Indian.

I will buy you and Allen some presents in Hovona.

I bought Watha and Carine some fine perfumes in Colou. I will buy more in Hovona. We have the finest room on the ship. Everybody roots on us hand and foot.

They bow to us every time we pass them.

you can imagine.

Tonight I had for dinner first a manhattan cocktail then for entree a plate with smoked salmon, two kinds of sardines - fillets of anchovies and some other tasty fish then a plate of Purée of Corn soup, then cold boiled red salmon, then a sirloin steak, baked Idaho Potatoes, carrots Peas, cauliflower. Then for desert a dish of assorted canned fruit - apricots peaches, pineapple and two large Green Plums. and last coffee.

The sea air makes you

Yes sweetheart Leonardo I am living like a King
It is all like a dream, I only hope I don't wake up. Well sweetheart be a good girl, I love you more than ever.

Truly
Your Noddy
