

165 Baskets of Food for Poor Distributed by Lechem Aniyum Society

Great enthusiasm marked an outstanding gathering of charity-workers of the Hill district recently in the Congregation Beth Jacob Hall under the auspices of the Lechem Aniyum Society.

The Lechem Aniyum Society was organized more than 15 years ago by Nathan Goldstock, J. Mervis and C. Abramovitz, who worked in behalf of the society until 1929 when they asked neighborhood women to contribute their efforts. The society has for its purpose the donation of baskets of provisions for poor families on the Sabbath.

Mrs. L. Backer was a leading worker since 1929 in renewing the work of the society and 165 baskets were given two weeks ago to the poor families of the district.

Officers were elected as follows: Honorary chairmen, Mr. Nathan Goldstock, Mr. Mervis and Mr. Abramovitz; president, Mrs. Louis Backer; vice president, Mrs. L. I. Schwartz; treasurer, Max Epstein; secretary, Mrs. William Feldman; chairman of board of directors, H. Beeson; directors, Mrs. S. Rogalsky, Charles Sable, Mrs. Simon, Mrs. Simon Steinberg, Mrs. Schugar, Mr. Shapiro, Mrs. N. Markovitz; distribution committee, Mrs. Pearlman, Mrs. Sachs and Mrs. Jaffee.
