

ANATOMY OF A PRESIDENT

The president of any group leads a hard life --

 If she writes a letter, it is too long

 If she sends a post card, it is too short

 If she doesn't send a notice, she is lazy

 If she issues a pamphlet, she is a spendthrift

 If she attempts to safeguard the interest of the group,

 she is trying to run things

 If she does not, she is allowing the group to go to the dogs

 If she attends a committee meeting, she is intruding

 If she stays away, she is a stinker

 If she duns members for dues, she is insulting

 If she fails to collect dues, she is slipping

 If she asks for advice, she is incompetent

 If she doesn't, she is bullheaded

 If she makes a full report, it is too long

 If she condenses it, it is incomplete

 If she talks on a subject, she is trying to run things

 If she remains silent, she has lost interest in the group

 If the program is a success, the program committee is praised

 If it is not, you guessed it; it is the president's fault

 If she is in a good mood, she is frivolous

 If not, she is a sorehead

 Ashes to ashes - dust to dust

 IF OTHERS DON'T DO IT, THE PRESIDENT MUST!
