

DIED

Abram Panich

Abram Panich, aged 51, beloved husband of Rena Panich, died Friday, March 18th, at his late residence, 915 North Negley Avenue. Mr. Panich came to this country from Russia more than thirty years ago during which time he was engaged in the dry goods business on Penn Avenue. He was a member of the Congregation Shaarah Tfilah, Congregation Ohav Sholem, Knights of Pythias, Congregation Beth Abraham Burial Association as well as various charitable organizations in this city. Besides his widow, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. S. Z. Schechter, Mrs. M. Horvitz and Miss Jean Panich at home. Funeral services were held at the late family residence on Sunday, March 20th, Rabbi A. M. Ashinsky and Rev. J. Bloom officiating. Interment at White Hall cemetery.

Abram Panich

The following liberal donations have been made the various local organizations through the generosity of the late Mr. Panich: Montefiore Hospital, $250; Young Men's Hebrew Association, $250; Jewish Home for Babies, $250; Jewish Home for Aged, $100; The Talmud Torah, $100; Pittsburgh Home of Shelter, $100; Hebrew Institute of Pittsburgh, $100; Free Burial Association of Pittsburgh, $100; Congregation Shaarah Tfiloh, $50; Congregation Beth Abraham Burial Association, $50; Congregation Ohav Sholem, $50.