Did you ever eat a sandwich that left a pleasant taste you long remembered? When every bite was a promise fulfilled . . . when your palate was eager for the next delicious morsel? There was nothing stingy about that sandwich—the meat was sliced generously, the bread was thick enough to let your teeth sink deep. Yes, sir, that was a sandwich you'd walk more than a mile to get. . . . But you don't have to go that far, that's the kind of a sandwich you'll always get at the Murray Sandwich Shop, 2203 Murray Avenue. Toasted Weiners are their specialty. They deliver—Call them—Hazel 9421.
