

CHECK representing a day's restaurant receipts from Iz Cohen's to Gerald S. Soroker, (left) Executive Director of the United Jewish Federation of Pittsburgh, was presented by Robert Shugerman, right, and Charles Criswell, center. Better known as Bob and Chuck, they wanted to express their concern in a tangible way for the needs of the Soviet Jews now rushing into Israel and offered to turn over the entire restaurant receipts from one day's business at their Iz Cohen's Restaurant and Delicatessen to the Israel Emergency Fund.
