

ANNOUNCEMENT

Of the Opening of the Saxonburg Mineral Springs Hotel, Saxonburg, Pennsylvania

THE SAXONBURG MINERAL SPRINGS are noted for curative and tonic properties of its mineral waters.

The magnesia spring water has made marvelous cures and is invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and constipation.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR 150 GUESTS.

OPENING MAY 1st, 1922

THE ONLY KOSHER RESORT OF ITS KIND IN THE STATE

Located in Butler County on 42 acres of ground, 24 miles from Pittsburgh, with cheerful and pleasant surroundings. Modern equipment and elegantly furnished, offering every comfort to those desiring rest and health. The hotel is equipped with bowling alleys, billiard room, dance hall, gas and electric, and running hot and cold water in each room. Large picnic grounds.

Courteous treatment and good service. Here is the ideal spot to enjoy a few weeks' or day's vacation.

Hungarian Cuisine—Good wholesome and home-like meals. Rates, $25.00 per week. Children half price. Special rates to families.

TO GET TO SAXONBURG BY AUTO.

From Highland Park to Sharpsburg, take Etna road at 15th Street, or macadam road at Cheswick by the way of Culmerville.

BY STREET CAR

Take Harmony or Butler Shortline at Penn Ave. and 6th Street, to Butler, Pa., where bus to Saxonburg will meet guests in front of the Court House.

For other information call Schenley 1843-J or Saxonburg 17.
MORRIS TAFEL, Prop.