

MINERAL SPRINGS HOTEL DELIGHTFUL HEALTH RESORT

Mineral Springs Hotel, located one mile north of Saxonburg, Pa., has proven increasingly popular as a vacation resort this summer. The hotel itself, containing one hundred rooms, is strictly modern in every respect and offers every comfort and convenience. While the fifty acres of playground surrounding furnish unlimited pleasure. There is a large mineral water swimming pool for the pleasure of the hotel patrons and it is a haven of rest and recreation.

Delicious meals, appetizing and wholesome, are served at Mineral Springs Hotel, and chicken or steak dinners, especially, are available at any time, any day. Special attention is given to banquets, parties, weddings and conferences, and reservations for these as well as for vacations are being booked constantly. This hotel is particularly known for its curative mineral water, recommended by physicians for rheumatism, blood, liver, kidney and stomach trouble.

To reach the Mineral Springs Hotel, take any road leading to Etna; out Butler Plank Road to Bakerstown, turn right to Culmerville; turn left to Saxonburg or take the Creek Road out of Etna to Culmerville, straight ahead to Saxonburg. Come out through Sharps-burg or Aspinwall. The Kittanning Pike joins the Creek Road near Dorseyville; turn to right straight ahead to Saxonburg. Road from North Side or North Boroughs, cut over Thompson Run to Plank Road, or out East Ohio Street to Etna. From Butler take the Saxonburg Brick Road or bus to hotel. All are hard roads.

THOMAS MANN SAYS JEWS WOULD SAVE SPAIN

Madrid, Spain.—In an interview published in El Sol, Thomas Mann, Germany's Nobel Prize novelist, in discussing the prospects of the new Republic, asserts that the return of the Jews to Spain would mean the rehabilitation of the country.