

Yale M. Shanfield

August 10, 2015

The Times-Tribune · 20 Aug 2015

Yale M. Shanfield, of Scranton, Pa., died Monday evening, Aug. 10, at the Jewish Home of Eastern Pa. He and his surviving wife, Hallett Bethel Shanfield, celebrated 60 years of marriage on June 7.

Born in Scranton, son of the late Sydney and Miriam Glickfield Shanfield, he was a graduate of Mahanoy City High School, Pa. Yale was an Army veteran, having served in the Korean War. He attended Penn State University, later graduating from the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City. He became a staple of “quality manufacturing” in the United States garment industry as owner/manager of Mahanoy City Shirt Co., Mahanoy City, Pa.; Barnesboro Shirt Co., Barnesboro, Pa.; and Hallie Limited, Indiana, Pa.

Also surviving are a son, David Lee Shanfield and wife, Pamela, Hastings, Pa.; a daughter, Gemma S. Boyer and husband, Jeffrey, Salisbury, Md.; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a sister, Velma Felder and husband, Dr. Martin Felder, California; nieces and nephews.

He was also preceded in death by a sister, Elaine Utan, wife of attorney Edwin Utan, Scranton; and a grandson, Sergeant Derek L. Shanfield, USMC (Afghanistan), of Hastings.

A private funeral service was held in the Carlucci-Golden-DeSantis Funeral Home Inc., Dunmore, Pa., conducted by Rabbi Daniel Swartz.

To offer the family a condolence, please visit www.ScrantonJewishFunerals.com.