Dear Folks:

It is with great thought and deliberation that I write this letter to you. For well over a year I have been providing space for your Friday evening services, charging you minimum cost, which I am willing to do, however, here is the bitter pill which I cannot seem to swallow.

Several months ago your women's group had a luncheon at Wildwood Country Club, Mr. "B" was not even asked to quote a price. Last evening I was asked to donate a door prize for the "Monte Carlo" night to be held at Royal Ridge, again Mr. "B" was not even asked to quote a price.

I guess I have been greatly disillusioned for the more I do the less opportunity I receive.

I am willing to do as much as I can, all I ask in return is that I receive a fair chance.

Sincerely,

A. W. Backauskas
General Manager
