

Israel's consul general honor guest at luncheon in Wildwood Golf Club

The consul general of Israel, Emanuel Shimoni, will be guest of honor at a luncheon May 20 in Wildwood Golf Club in honor of the 25th anniversary of Israel's independence.

The North Hills Jewish Community Center and North Hills Hadassah are cosponsors.

Cochairmen of the luncheon are Mrs. Herbert (Mary) Kaufman, 116 Sharbot Lane, Ross, Mrs. Albert E. (Naomi) Leven, 9377 Highmeadow Drive, McCandless, and Dr. Helen Krause, 1016 Covington Place, McCandless.

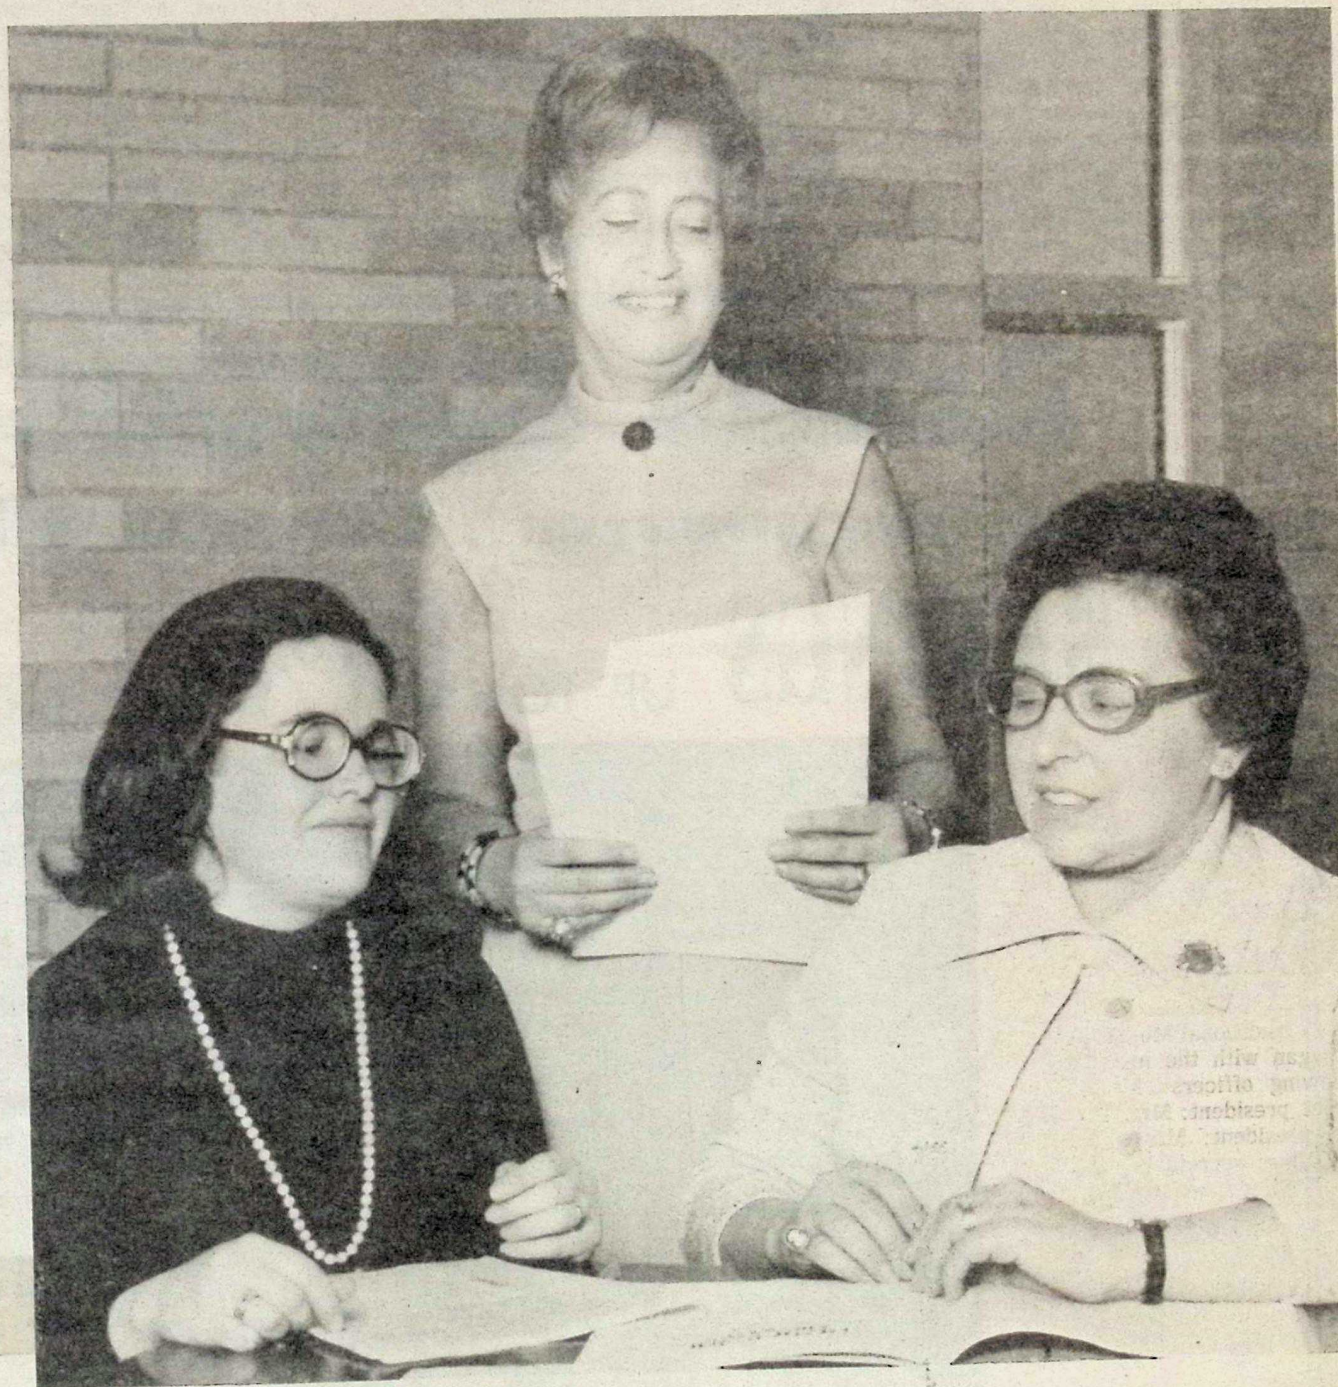

Others on the anniversary committee are Mrs. Bernie Caplan, Mrs. Irwin Fettman, Mrs. Mike Rossin, Mrs. Saul Weissberg, Mrs. Martin Norman, Mrs. Samuel Emmet, Mrs. Harry Schwartzbart, Mrs. Frank Rosenfeld, Mrs. Larry Garber, Mrs. Sherman Golbitz, Mrs. David Cross, Mrs. Jack Roseman, Mrs. Ted Barnett, Mrs. Otto Nussbaum, Saul Weissberg, Sid Winicoff, Dr. Bernard Cohen and Eli Jacobson.

The youth corps of ushers are Jane Segal, Robin Rosenfeld, Alayn Rosenfeld, Mitchell Pinsky, Howard Berg, Jemillah Schwartzbart, Richard Nussbaum, Randy Caplan, Melissa Werner, Larry Berk and Gary Alpern.

Dr. Bernard Cohen will be toastmaster.

Mrs. Jack Talon is president of the community center; Mrs. Otto Nussbaum heads the Hadassah.

Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Kaufmann (366-5111) and Mrs. Martin Norman (364-0907).

PLANNERS — Three heads are better than one as plans are laid for the appearance of Emanuel Shimoni, consul general of Israel, at Wildwood Golf Club May 20 at noon. North Hills Jewish Community Center and North Hills Hadassah are sponsoring his visit in honor of the 25th anniversary of Israel's independence. Cochairman above, left to right, are: Mrs. Herbert (Mary) Kaufman, 116 Sharbot Lane, Ross; Mrs. Albert E. (Naomi) Leven, 9377 Highmeadow Drive, McCandless, and Dr. Helen Krause.